

Contextual Gap Fill □

English in Context 7 | Name: _____ | Date: _____

□ Instructions: Read the text carefully and fill in each gap with ONE suitable word. There is NO word bank – you must infer the missing words from context! Think about grammar, meaning, and collocations.

The Mystery of the Abandoned Village

Deep in the Scottish Highlands lies a village that (1) _____ been abandoned for over fifty years. (2) _____ one quite knows why the inhabitants left so suddenly, but there are several theories. (3) _____ to local legend, a terrible storm struck the area in 1970, (4) _____ many of the buildings uninhabitable. However, historians argue that the real reason was economic – young people were moving (5) _____ the cities in search (6) _____ better opportunities.

Today, the village has become a popular destination (7) _____ tourists and photographers. (8) _____ the fact that access is difficult, hundreds of visitors make the journey every year. The ruined cottages, (9) _____ roofs have long since collapsed, create an eerie but beautiful atmosphere. (10) _____ standing among the ruins, it's hard not to wonder what life (11) _____ have been like for those who once called this place home.

Environmentalists are now concerned (12) _____ the impact of tourism on the fragile ecosystem. They have suggested (13) _____ visitor numbers should be limited, (14) _____ has sparked debate among locals who rely (15) _____ tourism for income. The future of the village remains uncertain, but one thing is clear: its haunting beauty continues to captivate (16) _____ who venture there.